In the Soop: Friendcation

Disney+ ■ New Series

This Korean reality series follows five celebrity friends – actors Park Seo-jun and Choi Woo-shik; K-pop stars Park Hyung-sik (of the boy band ZE:A) and V (Kim Tae-hyung, of the boy band BTS); and rapper Peakboy (Kwon Sung-hwan) – as they step away from their busy everyday lives to unwind together in a surprising trip.

The School for Good and Evil

Netflix ■ Original Film

Paul Feig directed this fantasy film adaptation of Soman Chainani's novel about teenage best friends (Sophia Anne Caruso and Sofia Wyle) who find themselves on opposing sides of an epic battle when they are swept away into an enchanted school where young heroes and villains are trained to protect the balance between good and evil. Also leading the cast are Charlize Theron, Kerry Washington, Laurence Fishburne and Michelle Yeoh.

CATCH A CLASSIC

Pam Grier – Part 1

TCM, Beginning at 8 p.m.

Tonight and next Wednesday evening, Turner Classic Movies presents a salute to iconic actress Pam Grier, who became famous for her action roles in 1970s "blaxploitation" features, and the star herself will be on hand to introduce some of her iconic movies. Tonight's lineup, though, begins with a more straightforward dramatic role for Grier, alongside Richard Pryor, in 1977's

TBS, 8 p.m. Live

TBS airs the best-of-seven American League Championship Series beginning with Game 1 tonight. Game 7, if necessary, is scheduled for Oct. 26.

Nature

PBS, 8 p.m. ■ Season Premiere

The Emmy- and Peabody Award-winning natural-history series opens its 41st season with "Running With the Beest." The film tracks the Great Migration in East Africa, one of the most impressive mass movements of land animals on Earth – so large it can

Greased Lightning, a biopic about Wendell Scott (Pryor), the first Black NASCAR race winner. Following that are two of Grier's blaxploitation flicks: 1975's Friday Foster (pictured), in which she plays the titular magazine photographer, who is drawn into a political conspiracy after witnessing an assassination attempt, and Hit Man (1972), an adaptation of Ted Lewis' novel Jack's Return Home (which had also been adapted into 1971's Get Carter). Later in the evening/early tomorrow morning, TCM is also airing two films from this '70s subgenre not starring Grier but with a similarly tough heroine: Tamara Dobson as the title character in

Abbott Elementary

ABC, 9 p.m.

In "Juice," Janine is thrilled to help introduce a new beverage to the cafeteria, but it ends up causing unexpected consequences for the students, teachers and school plumbing system. Elsewhere, Melissa clashes with her new aide, Ashley, who brings more disruption than help to the classroom.

Farmhouse Fixer

HGTV, 9 p.m. ■ Season Finale

In "Biggest Little Farmhouse," Jon Knight embarks on a new venture when his friends, Bill Klein and Jen Arnold from TLC's The Little Couple, want his help finding a farmhouse. They're moving from Florida to Boston for work and want a home with history, land and room to accommodate an elevator.

After Happily Ever After

BET & BET Her, 10 p.m. ■ New Series

Hosted by Bow Wow and filmed in Kentucky, this one-of-a-kind dating series features people whose long-term relationships ended in divorce or separation and whose exes will now play matchmaker for their former partners in hopes of helping them let go, move on and find love once again.

Documentary Now!

IFC, 10 p.m. ■ Season Premiere

The comedy that lovingly pays homage to the world of documentaries returns with a two-part premiere. "Soldier of Illusion," written by John Mulaney, is a tribute to the 1982 film Burden of Dreams, which documented Werner Herzog's struggles to direct his film Fitzcarraldo.
